

Center for Biology + Society

Conversation Series

2018 Spring Semester

Join us for a series of conversations at the intersection of biology and society.

Wednesdays ▪ Life Sciences C Wing ▪ Rm 202

Lunch: anytime between 11:30 a.m. - 12 p.m. ▪ Program: 12 - 1 p.m.

Jan. 17     Tyler DesRoches, Assistant Professor, School of Sustainability and Charles Perrings with Ashley Camhi
“Are there any ecological conditions that are essential to sustainability?”

Feb. 28     Ann Kinzig with Liz Barnes
“What is the role of the university in solving society’s problems?”

Mar. 14     Zachary Horne, Assistant Professor, School of Social and Behavioral Sciences and Beckett Sterner with Jonathan LaTourelle
“The influence of cognitive biases on scientific explanation”

RSVP for lunch headcount
Seating is limited

cbs.asu.edu/conversation-series-rsvp

ASU Center for Biology and Society
Arizona State University

Find us on

cbs.asu.edu