

Congratulations!

Dear Olivia,

Congratulations on the launch of your important initiative to support graduate students' mental health at ASU!

Tackling barriers to mental health care is critical, and your work is sure to make a lasting impact on our academic community. It's inspiring to see such thoughtful efforts to foster well-being among students.

Wishing you great success as you continue this vital work.

Sincerely,

Nancy Gonzales
Executive Vice President and
University Provost

