Ethics Lab is open to anyone who's got a brain & is mildly interested in using it. The class is designed as a companion lab for students of BIO467 Neurobiology. Topics will include court-ordered brain interventions, brain machine interfaces and the military, brain enhancement and transhumanism, personal identity and human rights, and more.