

Curriculum Vitae

JJ LaTourelle

Education

Arizona State University

PhD Student, 2012 – current

School of Life Sciences, Center for Biology and Society
History and Philosophy of Science

University of Pittsburgh:

Bachelors of Arts, 2011

School of Arts and Science
History and Philosophy of Science

Santa Barbara City College:

Transfer-Track Certification, 2008

School of Arts and Sciences
English Literature; Earth & Planetary Science

Areas of Research and Competence

History of Science: Astronomy, Geology, Economics, Linguistics, Psychology, and the Mechanical Philosophy.

Philosophy of Science: Evolutionary Biology, Linguistics, Moral Psychology, Cognitive Science, Astronomy, Geology, and the Mechanical Philosophy.

Philosophy: Bioethics, Moral Philosophy, Philosophy of Science, Pragmatism, Philosophy of Mind, and Literary Existentialism.

Intellectual History: Science in Society (US) (1840-1940), Modern Philosophy (From Descartes through John Dewey)

Relevant Selections of Work Experience

2012 – current Arizona State University

Graduate Teaching Opportunities

- Bioethics in Film (Spring 2014)

Graduate Teaching Assistant

- History of Science: with Dr Michael While (Fall 2012-2013); with Dr Thomas Martin (Summer 2013, 2014)
- Philosophy of Science: with Dr Richard Creath (Spring 2013); with Dr Brad Armendt (Summer 2013, Fall 2014)
- Research Methods: with Drs Jane Maienschein and Ann Kinzig (Spring 2014)

2005 - 2008

Santa Barbara City College

Astronomy, Physical & Historical Geology, English Composition & Critical Thinking Student Tutor

- Three Years tutoring and teaching assistance in the Astronomy Program. Assisted in the creation of EARTH 105: Topics in Astronomy: Recent NASA Missions, a class on planetary geology.
- Two Years tutoring Historical Geology; One Year tutoring Physical Geology. Field Study tutoring, Grading, and teaching assistance.
- One Year tutoring English Composition (ENG 110) and Critical Thinking (ENG 111) as a Gateway Tutor for Melissa Menendez Ph. D

Administrative Work, Field
Experience,
Unpaid Teaching
Opportunities.

Summer Field Study: Wyoming, Washington, Oregon, Alberta and BC Canada (Canadian Rockies and Western North America): Geology Field Studies as a Volunteer Undergraduate Teaching Assistant and Tutor to Colorado, Utah, Nevada and Arizona (Colorado Plateau), Northern and Central California (Eastern Sierra Nevada and Owens Valley), and Death Valley (2006-08). Twice guest lecturing for Dr Hammond in Intellectual Foundations of Capitalism and once for Orwell and the Cold War: 'Intellectual Foundations of Anarchism' and 'Orwell, Arent, and Dr. Strangelove', (Spring09, Summer09, respectively). Committee on Academic Affairs and Grievances, 2013- (nominated, pending approval).

Awards
Scholarships,
& Fellowships

T. Bennett Geology Scholarships (SBCC) 2006, Alan Witcher Field Scholarship (SBCC) 2006, SBCC President's Honor Roll (2007-08), Outstanding First-Year Geology Student (SBCC) 2007, Carl Sagan Memorial Science Scholarship (SBCC) 2007, Brackenridge Summer Research Fellowship (Pitt) 2009 [Research Presented: "Science Education and Technocracy: Policy Support of Science As A Vocation"], Offered the "Chancellor's Undergraduate Teaching Fellowship" (Pitt) 2009 [Class: "Intellectual Foundations of Capitalism" HIST 1145 / ECON 1030]. Honor Roll (Pitt) [2011]